Years ago, when my kids were little, I borrowed this book from the library over and over again when it was time for a birthday party (I have 5 kids, so we had lots of birthday parties). I mourned the loss of this book when the library finally took it out of circulation, and just had to have my own copy. My kids are older now, but who knows? Maybe parties for the grandkids? In any case, this book is packed with great ideas for theme parties, invitations, party favors, menus, etc. But by far, the best thing about it is the abundance of games - simple games that children enjoy-all with an age range listed, so you know what games are appropriate for whom. Besides, I think there's a bit of nostalgia for me with this book since I was a young child myself when this book was first published. I'll cherish this book until I'm 100 years old!

This childrens party book is full of wonderful ideas. Although it is an older book the ideas can be tweaked to fit with modern children's parties.

There are some great party ideas that I forgot about and it helped me remember them. I love the 1960's look in the book.
