Project 2016 Managing Complexity

Understanding Precedence

There are four types of precedence: Finish-to-Start (FS), Finish-to-Finish (FF), Start-to-Start (SS), and Start-to-Finish (SF). The most common is Finish-to-Start (FS). To create a precedence, click on the task you want to precede, then click on the task you want to follow. A precedence arrow will appear between the two tasks. To change the type of precedence, click on the arrow and select the type you want from the dropdown menu.

Showing Slack

Slack is the amount of time a task can be delayed without affecting the project finish date. To show slack, click on the task and select "Show Slack" from the task information box.

Hiding Negligible Amounts of Slack

To hide negligible amounts of slack, click on the task and select "Hide Negligible Slack" from the task information box.

Using the Network Diagram

The Network Diagram (ND) shows the sequence of tasks in a project. To view the ND, click on the task and select "View Network Diagram" from the task information box.

Creating a New Relationship

To create a new relationship, click on the task you want to precede, then click on the task you want to follow. A precedence arrow will appear between the two tasks.

Deleting an Existing Relationship

To delete an existing relationship, click on the arrow between the two tasks and select "Delete Relationship" from the context menu.

Adding a Task to the Network Diagram

To add a new task to the network diagram, click on the task and select "Add Task" from the task information box.

Examining the Critical Path

The Critical Path (CP) is the sequence of tasks that determines the project finish date. To examine the CP, click on the task and select "View Critical Path" from the task information box.

Entering or Editing Task Notes

To enter or edit task notes, click on the task and select "Enter Task Notes" from the task information box.

Using a Different Relationship Type

To change the relationship type, click on the arrow between the two tasks and select the new type from the dropdown menu.

Creating a Recurring Task

To create a recurring task, click on the task and select "Create Recurring Task" from the task information box.

Splitting a Task

To split a task, click on the task and select "Split Task" from the task information box.

Using the Timeline Pane

The Timeline Pane shows the project schedule in a visual format. To view the timeline, click on the task and select "View Timeline" from the task information box.

Adding a Task to a Timeline Bar

To add a task to a timeline bar, click on the task and select "Add Task to Timeline Bar" from the task information box.

Adding Another Timeline Bar

To add another timeline bar, click on the task and select "Add Timeline Bar" from the task information box.

Changing Length of a Timeline Bar

To change the length of a timeline bar, click on the task and select "Change Length of Timeline Bar" from the task information box.

Changing Color of a Task in the Timeline

To change the color of a task in the timeline, click on the task and select "Change Color of Task in Timeline" from the task information box.

Moving a Timeline Bar

To move a timeline bar, click on the task and select "Move Timeline Bar" from the task information box.

Splitting a Timeline Bar

To split a timeline bar, click on the task and select "Split Timeline Bar" from the task information box.
