Customer Reviews

This book features a brand new (gourmet) twist on old Irish favorites. The recipes are simple and in an easy to understand format, even for the novice cook. So far, I've tried the recipe for Carrot Cake with Cream Cheese Frosting and it came out delicious! However, I did add a twist to the frosting on my own... Grand Marnier! It really adds a kick and brings out the zest of the oranges the recipe calls for. Overall, the best way to describe this book is that it's "corned beef and cabbage" with a modern day twist.
